

Dear Steve:

Barbara and I want to thank you for making our beautiful new home a reality.

Your dedication, attention to detail and innumerable demonstrations of your superior construction knowledge made the building of our home an effort of joy.

Gary Gardner is most fortunate to have you as a supervisor and we are most fortunate to have you as a dear friend who will always be welcomed in our home.

Barbara & Stan Wackman